Vedatya Institute

Success Isn't Accidental.

It is ambitious, it is audacious, and it is bold. Yet, success will only remain a dream unless pursued with knowledge and purpose.

Vedatya, building upon its core values of research oriented faculty, world class curriculum, international placements and student orientation, is now crossing a milestone in its pursuit of knowledge with a brand new fully integrated campus. It is therefore an opportune moment for us to adopt an identity that reflects our pursuit.

Vedatya reflects its core value. "Ved" in Hindi means knowledge and "Aditya" means sun. "Vedatya", therefore, is a coined term that means "Source of Knowledge". We push boundaries for lifelong pursuit of knowledge. Be successful, not by accident, but through Vedatya.

Vedatya. Educator for the service industry.

From The Director's Desk

Prof. Sandeep Munjal

Director

Welcome to Vedatya Institute. I would like to congratulate you for choosing Vedatya as a higher education option.

The true strength of any academic institution comes from its faculty team and their approach towards dissemination of knowledge. Faculty engaged in research and consulting brings value to the class room and ensures that they are current in their subject areas. The institute has a strong research-oriented faculty who author books and has published their research in journals worldwide. The faculty has also been trained and exposed to the latest pedagogical interventions, in higher education.

An international journal and an annual conference on services management are also testimony to the research commitment of the institute.

Add to that, a strong industry interface that allows students to attend lectures from industry professionals, interact with them, get mentoring support and the result is employable talent that is well received by the industry. I am sure you will make the most of these opportunities to develop and enhance your skills and knowledge.

We are passionate about providing an outstanding student experience. Industry visits, international trips, cultural immersion and involvement with NGOs are all elements that contribute to it. Our state-of-the-art 'Green Campus' with academic, recreational and residential facilities for students.

All of the above contribute towards creating leaders, with a mind of their own. Leaders who are going to be ready to make decisions that will help businesses grow and succeed through their leadership.

Vedatya students have been placed in the best organisations over the last fifteen years. Their continued success is a testimony of institute's focus on creating leaders. The institute has also produced entrepreneurs who are successfully managing their businesses.

I wish you the very best and I am sure your stay at Vedatya Institute will be a transformational experience.

It is our primary aim to provide every student with an opportunity to fulfill his or her potential while studying for an internationally-benchmarked qualification.

Head of School

School of Hospitality and Tourism Management

The world around us is changing faster than one had ever imagined it to. The process of evolution has been expedited by the advancement of technology and increasing knowledge base in all spheres of life. Manufacturing took over from most agricultural economies and the current era is seeing the ascendancy of services as the largest economic driving force. This has led not only to standardization and enhancement in quality of product but has also led to the increase in consumer choices. While dealing with the services sector one must bear in mind that majority of the success depends on the perception that exists about one's product and the experience that one is able to create for the guest and / or ultimate consumer. With the advancement in technology the product in itself can easily be replicated and thus it will be the experience that will provide the cutting edge to any business, including those that are manufacturing oriented or at least have been traditionally so. These changes thus will require a greater understanding of the human psyche and also service orientation like never before. Service orientation is a skill that requires understanding of basic concepts and their implementation in order to drive customer satisfaction.

This is what the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management is all about. It is about directing and channelizing the energies, thoughts and exposure to the various perspectives which will help you learn, and reach your own conclusions independently. It is about making the mistakes and learning from them only to ensure that the same mistakes are not repeated. It is about being a better individual in terms of understanding the importance of team work and the ability to learn from others. It is about creating your identity.

The Hospitality and Tourism sectors in the Indian context are poised for explosive growth to meet the growing demand that our vibrant economy is creating. This offers a tremendous opportunity to build strong, protean careers, engage in entrepreneurship, adding value to self and society.

Having mentioned the activity and opportunities on the Indian landscape, it would be equally relevant to add that despite periods of economic uncertainty and flat growth in many parts of the world, Hospitality sector continues to show growth and offers global opportunities to trained and qualified professionals. It is our endeavor to train, develop and prepare our students for successful global Hospitality careers.

About Vedatya Institute

Vedatya Institute is an initiative of IIT & the Wharton School alumni who wish to replicate their own quality educational experience for the benefit of students in India. It was established with the active support of corporations such as - The Carlson Group, USA and the Edwardian Group, UK. The institute is funded by the holding entity of Radisson Blu Plaza Delhi, Radisson Blu Varanasi and a restaurant chain called The Great Kebab Factory. The institute's campus, located on Gurugram-Sohna road, is fully integrated with academic, recreational and residential facilities for students.

The institute was established in the year 2000 as an institute of higher learning in India that offers internationally recognized, undergraduate and post graduate programmes of study in hospitality and business management.

The institute's record of academic excellence is demonstrated by its full time faculty, the journal called the Journal of Services Research (JSR) that has been in publication for 20 years, and an international conference on services management hosted by Vedatya in India, and its global partners - Virginia Tech University in US, Oxford Brookes University in UK, and Institute of Tourism Studies in Macao.

Schools At Vedatya

Vedatya consists of various schools focusing on individual disciplines but with a common thread running through them. The basic philosophy behind this is to leverage synergies that exist between various disciplines such that participants get professional training to fit in general management as well as process management cadres in designated industry sectors. Keeping this in consideration the institute has established the following four schools.

School of Hospitality and Tourism Management (SHTM)

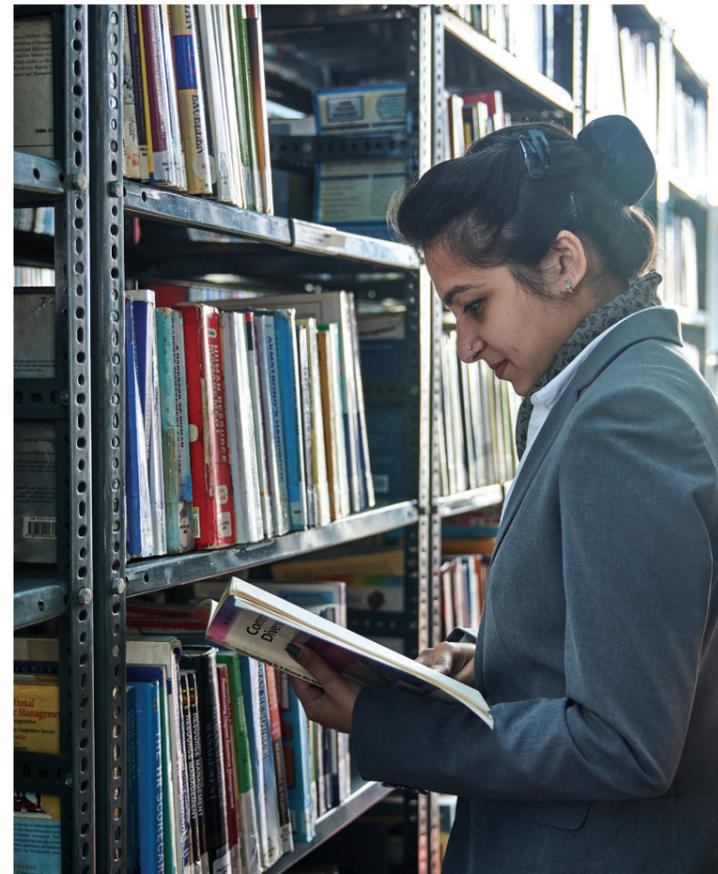

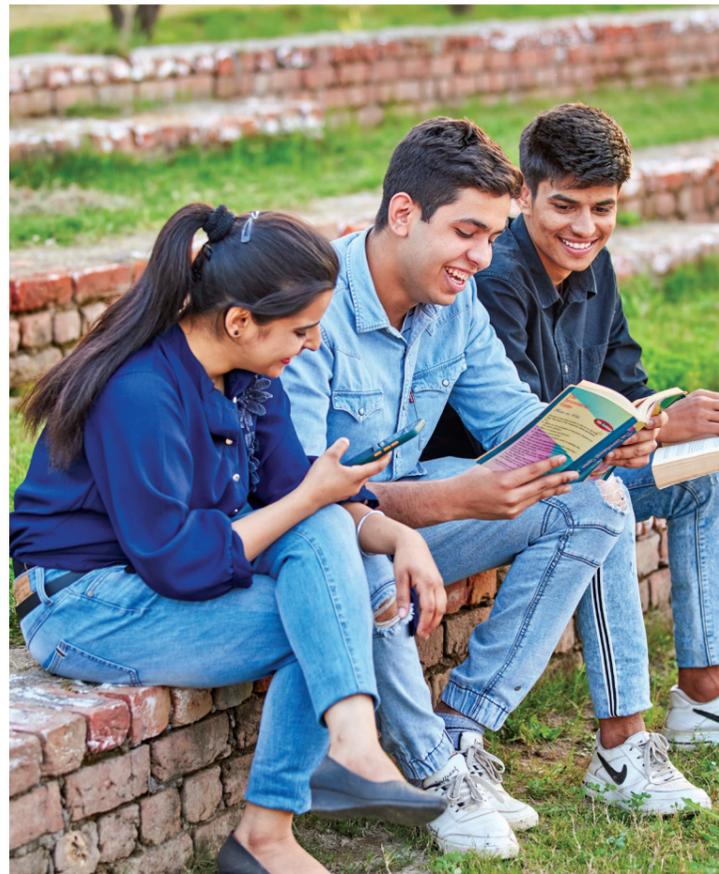

School of Culinary Excellence (SOCE)

School of Management and Entrepreneurship (SOME)

School of Design and Creative Arts (SDCA)

These schools offer undergraduate and postgraduate programmes of study. Other than this each school promotes research, consulting and executive training in their chosen areas of excellence. Each school has its dedicated staff and other resources and is governed by Academic Councils to direct their academic pursuits.

IHG ACADEMY

Partnership with IHG to groom future leaders in the hospitality industry through an IHG academy

InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG), one of the world's largest hotel company has a formal partnership with Vedatya which expands IHG's existing IHG Academy programme across India. India's workforce, those between 15 and 64, is expected to rise to 67 percent in 2020 and the challenge is to turn those people into an employable workforce. IHG wants to contribute to the education of the future generation in India through its IHG Academy programme.

Vedatya Institute benefits from the partnership through a range of initiatives including IHG guest lecturers and mentors on campus; work experience placements for its students at IHG hotels; sponsorship of campus facilities as well as the opportunity to connect students with a range of employment options when they are finishing their studies.

The IHG Academy was developed to attract and foster talent by providing real-life skills and enhancing employment opportunities. It is a global initiative by IHG and has more than 180 programmes running around the world.

IHG (InterContinental Hotels Group) is a global organisation with a broad portfolio of 10 hotel brands, including InterContinental® Hotels & Resorts, Hotel Indigo®, Kimpton Hotel & Restaurant®, Crowne Plaza® Hotels & Resorts, Staybridge Suites®, Candlewood Suites®, EVEN™ Hotels and HUALUXE® Hotels and Resorts. IHG manages IHG® Rewards Club, the world's first and largest hotel loyalty programme with nearly 99 million members worldwide.

IHG franchises, leases, manages or owns over 5,000 hotels and 7,54,000 guest rooms in nearly 100 countries and territories, with more than 1,460 hotels in its development pipeline. InterContinental Hotels Group PLC is the Group's holding company and is incorporated in Great Britain and registered in England and Wales.

School of Hospitality and Tourism Management (SHTM)

Mission Statement

Develop the next generation of hospitality leaders and entrepreneurs in Asia through quality international hospitality education, training, development and research, using state-of-the-art facilities, self-learning, qualified faculty, and global certification

The School of Hospitality and Tourism Management (SHTM) was established in the year 2000 as the institute's first school. SHTM provides its students the knowledge, skills and competencies for a career in the international hospitality and tourism industry. Its programmes are designed to empower students with a complete range of managerial skills both at a conceptual and at an operational level, supported by practical training and a Supervised Work Experience (SWE). In its short existence, SHTM has achieved many milestones:

- » Ranked amongst the premier hotel management institutions of India by the Education Times, Times of India
- » Academic partnership with IHG, world's largest hotel company, in the form of an IHG Academy
- » Demonstrated record of placement at global hospitality chains like Accor, InterContinental Hotels Group, Starwood, Hyatt, Oberoi, J.W. Marriot, Taj Hotels & Resorts and Carlson
- » Record of merit based full year paid internships in England, Australia, Dubai, Malaysia, Singapore, Germany and India
- » Demonstrated record of over 20 years of excellence in academics and research
- » 100 percent placements at management trainee / management positions in leading organisations
- » Numerous 'Employee of the Month' and 'Gold Awards' won by the students during the Supervised Work Experience (SWE) training
- » Self-organised well received food festivals and events created and executed by students
- » Many alumni have started successful entrepreneurial ventures

TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY SKILL COUNCIL (THSC)

Tourism and Hospitality Skill Council (THSC) is a Not – for – Profit Organization, registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. The Tourism and Hospitality Skill Council (THSC) is promoted by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) with inclusive representation of the Government, Industry, Industry Associations and Training Institutes across India, with financial support by National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC).

Tourism and Hospitality Skill Council (THSC) which is formed by the Industry and for the Industry to tackle the skilling of large manpower to fulfill the industry requirement plays a crucial role in bridging this ever-growing gap.

Vedatya Institute is a THSC affiliated training partner, delivering jointly certified short term skills based courses.

Programme in Hospitality Management & Leadership

3 YEAR FULL TIME PROGRAMME (Including 6 month Internship)

The goal of the program is to enable students to become entrepreneurial leaders and managers who can transform the hospitality organizations of the future. Students learn the difference between leadership and management and the relationship between the two in the hospitality industry. This course is academically equivalent to the Hotel Management (HM) or Hospitality Management degree.

From the beginning of the course one learns how to be a manager, exploring the key issues and building a foundation for a career in the hospitality industry. Focus on management related skills however is not at the cost of key 'operational skills' that are critical in the Indian context. Students thus get exposure to operational skills in a step up approach throughout the programme.

The 24 week internship provides 'on the job experience' that supplements the work experience and skills developed over the first three semesters. This also allows learners to identify areas of interest within the hospitality and tourism business space.

The third year allows students to choose an operational domain for advanced learning; this allows them to strengthen skills and knowledge in the domain that is likely to be aligned with their career interest and goals.

Module Description

Food Production Culinary Art-Basic Skills

The module is divided into three semesters and aims to equip students with basic skills required to work in the Professional Kitchen. Students are exposed to multiple cuisines and understand the process and how their ingredients play a role in preparation of different menus, breads, cakes, chocolates, etc.

Food and Beverage Service Operation-Basic Skills

The module is divided into two semesters and aims to equip students with basic skills required to work in the fine dining restaurants. From learning about wines, typology of alcoholic beverages to understanding various types of service approaches, the module will help develop a learner to understand service aspects around food and beverages. Accommodation Operations-Front Office Basic Skills: The module run over two semesters aims to equip students with basic skills required to manage 'front office' related functions like reservations, bell desk, reception, information and travel desk.

Accommodation Operations-Housekeeping Basic Skills

The module runs over two semesters is focused on housekeeping skills that are a critical component of any hospitality operation. Student will gain hands on experience and will also gain knowledge required to manage the function.

Branding Self and Effective Business Communication

The success of an individual is not only dependent on his or her technical knowledge and skills but also on other aspects of personality such as communication skills, attitude, behaviour, etc. The module is spread over three semesters and focusses on Communication, Personality Development and soft – skills.

Word Processing and Spreadsheet skills

The module provides useful platform to get our IT skills oriented for real life professional use.

Contemporary Hospitality and Context of Tourism

This module investigates the nature and context of the international hospitality and tourism industry – arguably the largest industry in the world. It explores the wider or macro economic, political, social, technological and physical systems within which Hospitality and tourism operates.

Introduction to Hospitality Marketing

This module aims to develop students' understanding of how to manage the marketing function for a hospitality or tourism multi-unit, multi-product business. It explains the role of planning, and the development of marketing strategy in branded companies.

Hospitality Human Resource Management

The module is designed to develop an understanding of the labour markets and the composition of the labour force in the hospitality industry. Given the service focus of the industry, an ability to manage human resource is critical to avoid turnover.

Hospitality Finance Basics

The module is aimed at building an understanding of basic financial and management accounting functions, to support their appreciation of the way businesses function, control their operations and report on their financial performance. This module helps build financial skills that are critical for learners to analyze, evaluate performance and make effective decisions.

Food Production and Culinary Art- Basic Skills

The module is designed to teach the candidate underpinning knowledge linked to working in quantity kitchen. Candidates will gain competence in preparing commodities and producing dishes whilst working as part of a team. The Kitchen operations have a dual goal: Understanding – That is, an understanding of theory, of how to cook and serve. Performing – that is, the mastery of a set skills and the ability to apply them to a wide range of cooking styles and products.

Food and Beverage Service Management

Drawing on relevant management principles and techniques, students will acquire an understanding of the skills and knowledge necessary for successful management within food and beverage service operations. The focus of the module shifts from service basics to aspects like menu engineering, F&B cost control and management of complex operations. Accommodation Management: The program aims to provide with both theoretical knowledge and practical experience of Front Office and Housekeeping operations. Particular emphasis is placed on customer satisfaction and the development of customer care skills.

Analysis of Managerial Financial Statements

The module will commence with a study of the context and regulation of accounting reports. The main part of the module will be based on the use of accounting reports as a basis for evaluation of company performance and position. The final stages of the module will study the Cash Flow Statement and its interpretation.

Hospitality E Business

An exploration of the business issues related to using Internet and Internet technologies for conducting business. The module investigates such issues as customer relations, business to business relations, new business models and organizational forms, and management and marketing in the global, multicultural and legal Internet environment. Introduces learners to the world of digital marketing.

Advanced Business Communication and Personality Development

Across semester three, we focus on your search for your internship placement and your plans for a placement in the industry and your future career. The starting point is the employers' view of what they want from the students / graduates. You will then go on to consider your own strengths and weaknesses in relation to employment and plan for your future development. During semester one and two, you would have completed an assessed mock interview and a technical interview. In this semester you would have time, opportunity and assistance to hone your skills and strengths and work on your weaknesses.

SWE Project Report

The module is designed to enable students to demonstrate their professional, technical and transferable management skills gained from supervised work experience in a hospitality or tourism organization. Students are required to evaluate current organizational practices using appropriate management theory. Evidence of reflective thinking and self-development are an integral part of this module.

Advance Food Production Management

The module is designed to enable candidates to develop practical cookery skills required to produce dishes to an advanced level and will provide learners with the opportunity to evaluate the dishes that they have produced. Students will be required to plan a complete menu taking account of seasonality and availability of food raw materials, including produce available at Vedatya Farms. The menu type and service details will be specified by the tutor. Each student will undertake production of the menu items in a commercial production situation.

Slow Food and Sustainability Practices

The unit reviews literature on 'slow food movement' from the international and Indian context and the same is analysed with respect to its possible commercial expression. The learners are expected to research the significance of the slow food movement as a force of culinary innovation with respect to the Indian hospitality landscape, identify best practices that will enable industry to commercially adopt 'slow food' and enlarge the movements footprint in India.

Advance Food and Beverage Services Management

This module aims to provide an understanding of the complexities of managing food and beverage outlets. The module examines a wide range of subject areas within the operation of food and beverage management and relates these to relevant sectors in the hospitality industry. Developing trends and increasing demands from the general public are studied, using examples from the hospitality industry.

Advance Accommodations Management

This module is designed to provide students with the opportunity to study and examine the contemporary practices in accommodation industry in detail and the issues being faced by hospitality Accommodation Managers. The services and products within this department will be considered and those factors, which optimize management and business performance, will be evaluated. Achieving a satisfactory balance between demand patterns, resource scheduling and operational capacity is one of the most difficult tasks facing accommodation managers today. There will be analysis of the scope of strategic, operational and financial decisions, which affect the success and development of the Accommodation department.

Hospitality Revenue Management

The module combines the study of revenue management processes with financial management methods that are designed to convert revenue into profit. For a sector where demand-supply shifts are common, a perishable inventory needs to be managed by deploying a scientific approach to pricing.

Hospitality Events Management

The module aims to provide students with a hands-on experience of project/event management in the context of the food-service industry. Working in small teams, students will acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to plan, organize, execute and evaluate a themed restaurant event within the realistic work environment.

Career Planning and Self Awareness

The module will allow students to reflect critically on the qualities and competencies required for graduate-level employment. The module will require students to evaluate career prospects for specific management positions in the hospitality or tourism industries. Building awareness about self is an integral part of the module.

Emerging Food Trends and Culinary Heritage

The module aims to investigate the historical significance of food and culture; it will integrate food with its heritage and explore ways of promotion through the contemporary promotional mediums. The students will be able to discover the field of food blogging with special emphasis on food photography and presentations skills. The module is aligned with current and future industry demands and will take the understanding of heritage and culinary tourism to the next level; it aspires to enhance the knowledge and understanding of traditional regional food and its capacity to drive tourism activity as a key driver.

Operations in Customer Facing Business

The module is designed to enable students to bridge the gap between theory and practice – the challenge of understanding operations management in the real life retail context. With this in mind, the Module Assessment involves you trying to design and hence consider all the customer-facing operational aspects involved in setting up your own customer-facing business, as well as designing a way to analyse how other operators in a customer-facing business such as retail do it and why.

Advanced Beverage Studies

This module will provide students with an advanced level of knowledge in beer, wine, spirits and mixology. They will have the opportunity to visit distilleries, breweries and wineries of international brand leaders to learn best business practices directly from the top professionals in the field.

Facility Planning and Design Consultancy

This module provides an understanding of planning and design is critical to the effective long-term sustainability and performance of hospitality businesses. Planning and Design of Hospitality Facilities provides a unique opportunity for students to learn about contemporary planning a design issues including: an examination of design processes; the role of government and building authorities; design principles for hospitality facilities; sustainability; and managerial aspects related to commissioning and evaluating hospitality facilities.

Entrepreneurship in Hospitality, Tourism and Leisure Business

The module will combine an academically grounded and practical approach to entrepreneurship. By engaging with theories and concepts within the industry context, it will consider both academic findings and the reality of the operating environment.

Leadership and Business Strategies

This module aims to integrate the knowledge you have gained about aspects of the hospitality and tourism industries in other advanced modules and therefore aims to consolidate the understanding of hospitality and tourism organizations by assessing them from a strategic perspective.

Hospitality Events Management-Implementation

The module aims to provide students with a hands-on experience of project/event management in the context of the food-service industry. Working in small teams, students will acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to plan, organize, execute and evaluate a themed restaurant event within the realistic work environment.

Environmentally Sustainable Business

This is an optional module that introduces students to the concepts of environmental management and sustainability as they apply to the hospitality and tourism industries.

Gastronomy

This is an optional module providing an understanding of the restaurant sector from a context of dining trends, and evaluates the changes that the sector has experienced in recent years. The central purpose of this module is to investigate what shapes and drives consumer preferences within the international restaurant sector. What influences contemporary culinary taste and our dining habits?

Primary Research Report

Student will work in four phases namely Inquiry, Exploration, Experimentation, and Reflection. Students will work in groups and learning is driven by the project that aims to provide an opportunity to concurrently develop operational and management skills.

Programme Delivery

In the context of learning and teaching pedagogy, the mission of both Manchester Metropolitan University and Vedatya is to provide excellence through experience. The Institute therefore uses a number of learning and teaching approaches to achieve this end and prepare students for lifelong learning. In addition to formal lectures, the programme makes use of seminars, guest lectures, business games, case studies, simulations and projects. Students will have the opportunity to develop their vocational and managerial skills using our state-of-the-art hospitality facilities. Our learning and teaching approaches also help students develop transferable skills such as teamwork and communication skills, which are essential in a personal as well as professional context.

The delivery of the curriculum at Vedatya is achieved through-

LECTURES

Lectures provide the necessary theoretical framework and concepts and students will be expected to undertake prescribed reading on the topic area in advance.

GUEST SPEAKERS

The institute actively supports a variety of guest lecture programmes. Subject specialists from both hospitality and the wider business community lecture students on current topics, thereby ensuring exposure to the latest industry thinking and approaches.

WORKSHOPS & SEMINARS

Workshops and seminars are used as an effective means of demonstrating knowledge and understanding in a specific subject area. Students having undertaken independent or group research will have the opportunity to present and discuss their findings within a controlled environment.

CASE STUDIES/ BUSINESS GAMES/ SIMULATIONS

These are used to develop students problem-solving skills. Students will analyse and evaluate a range of industry specific information and are expected to draw objective conclusions and provide workable solutions to the problems encountered.

INDUSTRIAL VISITS

These are seen as an essential component of the curriculum. Students will visit various operations and organizations representing the different sectors of the industry. These visits provide students with the opportunity to assess current operating systems, procedures and practices at first hand.

Programme Highlight

The School of Hospitality & Tourism Management (SHTM) has a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary approach to learning that is delivered through excellence in academic teaching, applied methods of research and a practical approach to training and consultancy. Teachers who not only have academic experience but also have extensive industry experience deliver the programme with a goal of providing students with real world knowledge and skills to be effective hospitality leaders and entrepreneurs of the future.

The key features of programmes are as follows.

KNOWLEDGE

At Vedatya, our students experience high quality of academic delivery in terms of course content by experts in their respective areas. The teaching pedagogy at the institute includes learning outcomes through the use of lectures, case studies, group discussions, role plays, simulation games and live projects. The section on "Teaching Methodology" provides a detailed description of this unique form of knowledge transfer.

ACTIVE INDUSTRY INTERFACE

In an ongoing endeavor to ensure that the students are exposed to the contemporary practices in theoretical learning and practical training, Vedatya has designed an active industry interface in the form of guest lectures, industry visits, industry mentorship programme, live projects and other similar initiatives. Seasoned industry professionals from a wide spectrum of corporate functions routinely feature as guest speakers, visiting faculty and conference participants to provide a real world perspective and an enhanced student learning experience. The students gather valuable perspective and guidance from industry visitors and gain insights into corporate life.

GLOBAL EXPOSURE

Vedatya recognizes the importance of a global perspective for its students in this boundary less world. Therefore one of the institute's criteria for recruiting faculty is to bring teacher on board who have global teaching and industry experience. This invaluable knowledge is of immense benefit to Vedatya students.

The global perspective is emphasized at Vedatya also through its curriculum. The course work showcases the interrelatedness of global political, economic, legal, social, technological, cultural and environmental systems to business situations.

Additionally, the students in many-a-case are taken for interactive sessions to and corporate organizations at international locations. The visit involves interaction with the industry and local universities. This helps students understand the global business climate. All costs are borne by the students.

Projects and Engagement in Community Service

We at Vedatya ensure that our students not only emerge as successful business leaders but also mature to become responsible citizens who make a meaningful contribution to the society. The program provides a platform for students to appreciate and contribute in activities and issues of social relevance. Our program places special emphasis on training students in the use of managerial sciences for the rural sector. This is also in line with the evolving business standard. In recent years Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) has become a fundamental business practice and has gained much attention from chief executives and executive management teams of larger international companies. They understand that a strong CSR program is an essential element amongst the portfolio of business initiatives. Hence it is no surprise that most employers prefer to hire students with real world community service experience that makes you a multifaceted professional and sets you apart from the competition.

Vedatya offers special avenues to expose its students to various societal concerns and also undertake projects to contribute meaningfully to the world around us. In this respect, we have an active collaboration with an NGO called Goonj. This initiative is a unique resource mobilization activity for providing clothes and other basic amenities to millions of people in the far-flung areas by turning one's waste into a resource for another. Initiated in 1998 with just 67 clothes, Goonj now sends out over 20,000 kgs of material every month in 19 states. They are targeting their efforts towards people steeped in poverty in some of the remotest parts of the country. Goonj have won many prestigious awards including CNN IBN Heroes Awards, India NGO of the year Award, Change Makers Innovation Awards and Development Market place Award from the World Bank. Vedatya is therefore very proud to be part of such an initiative.

TOTAL PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT

We believe personality has the power to open many doors and take pride in enabling comprehensive personality development of all our students. The industry values professionals with traits that include high personal grooming standards, etiquettes that are sensitive to cultural context, and personal work ethic. Our students are prepared and positioned to meet any corporate expectations in this regard through various workshops and training sessions designed and delivered by experts on the following subjects.

- » Fine dining etiquettes
- » Self-esteem and confidence building
- » Public speaking and presentation skills
- » Interview techniques and group discussions
- » Voice modulation and body language
- » Social graces and proper email & telephone etiquettes
- » Personal hygiene and grooming essentials
- » Working in cross cultural teams

Teaching Methodology

CURRICULUM DELIVERY

At Vedatya, we focus on learning that is vibrant, engaging, supportive and rewarding. Students learn through critical enquiry with practical insight in preparation towards management careers. We have developed a wonderful blend of learning, which includes pedagogy where the teacher imparts his knowledge and experience, andragogy where the student is encouraged to learn by seeking information through research, and epistemology where the student applies one's learning to real life situations. We develop the habit towards continuous learning throughout one's life. Curriculum is delivered using the following methods:

ASSIGNMENTS

As part of their course work and assessment of research, students are required to analyse and deliver solutions to professional issues

PRACTICAL TRAINING

Students work on the latest front-office software in the IT labs and get familiarized with E-formats of current day distribution systems

APPLIED LEARNING

Students managed food truck on campus

LECTURES

Lectures provide the necessary theoretical framework and concepts, and students are expected to read the prescribed topic area in advance

GUEST SPEAKERS

The Institute actively supports a variety of guest lecture programmes. Subject specialists from both hospitality and the wider business community lecture students on current topics, thereby ensuring exposure to the latest industry thinking and approaches

PSYCHOMETRIC TESTS / ASSESSMENT CENTRES

Students undergo various psychometric tests that help them understand their learning styles, term roles, strengths and areas of improvement. We also run Assessment Centers for students to assist them with interviewing skills and career planning aspects

CASE STUDIES / PROJECTS

These are used to develop student's problem-solving skills. Students analyze and evaluate a range of industry specific information, are expected to draw objective conclusions and provide workable solutions to the problems encountered

INDUSTRIAL VISITS

These are seen as an essential component of the curriculum. These visits provide students with the opportunity to assess current operating systems, procedures and practices on a first hand basis

Research at Vedatya

Vedatya is a research-oriented institute of higher learning. Our faculty authors books and publishes their research in some of the top tier publications and journals worldwide. Following education and research initiatives by the institute are a testimony to its research focus.

JOURNAL OF SERVICES RESEARCH (JSR)

Vedatya's Journal of Services Research (JSR) is an effort in building and documenting a corpus of research and analytical work which can facilitate decision making in the most dominant sector of the Indian economy – the services sector. It is owned and authored by the institute for over a decade since the year 2000 and is an effort to promote global researchers who focus on issues related to services management. JSR is a well researched & tested benchmark for the industry and sets new directions for future trends in research. The key features of the journal are as follows -

- » Features in the international databases – EBSCO (www.epnet.com) and Proquest (www.proquest.com). These databases provide online access to over 2500 journals (full text) therefore providing global reach and circulation to JSR
- » Participation by global researchers from US, UK, France, Australia, Japan, China and other parts of Europe
- » The editorial board of JSR includes 25 national and international members and 30 global reviewers. Board members include eminent academicians from India and abroad.

SERVICES CONFERENCE

The International Conference on Services Management (ICSM) was started by Vedatya in 2005 to explore the influence of technology on management of services across various segments such as information technology, healthcare, hospitality, telecom, education, infrastructure, retailing, and logistics. It also assesses how technology drives globalization and contributes to superior customer experience.

Since its inception, ICSM now has four additional international partners, Oxford Brookes University (OBU), UK, and The Pennsylvania State University (PSU), US, Virginia Tech University in US and Institute of Tourism Studies in Macao. As a result, ICSM is now a global conference held on a rotating basis in India, Europe, and US.

THE INDIAN HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY: DYNAMICS AND FUTURE TRENDS

India has been in transition for the last two decades, moving from a mixed economy toward a market economy model, and the Indian hospitality industry is metamorphosing into a mature industry. It is time that the story of the Indian hospitality industry is told. The Indian Hospitality Industry: Dynamics and Future Trends tells that story, one defined by the industry's push for growth in revenues and the struggle to match the revenue growth with profitability.

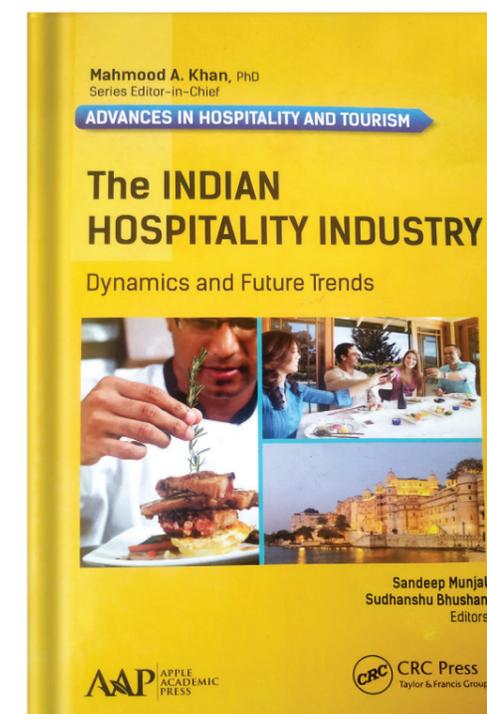

The volume includes a selection of insightful chapters that offer research into the multiple dimensions of the Indian hospitality industry. The book covers many segments of the hospitality sector, including hotels, events and catering businesses, and restaurants and coffee shops, both domestic and small mom-and-pop businesses as well as international chains. The opening chapters set the tone for providing an overarching perspective on the status of the industry in terms of the macroeconomic variables and how they may have impacted the health of hospitality businesses in India. The book then goes on to explore a wide variety of issues.

The editors and chapter authors are either practitioners themselves or researchers, looking at both domestic and international hospitality business in India and a wide variety of economic factors. The information divulged here will be important for stakeholders, which includes domestic and international hospitality professionals, business leaders, investors, and those in governmental positions, especially in the tourism ministry. The volume informs on the issues and challenges that the hospitality industry in India is up against. The book looks at the dilemma of an industry that responded to the demand growth promise by ramping up supply, only to find that the investments made were received by an actual growth that was way shy of forecasts and left investors with unexpected losses on their profit & loss statements and bloodied balance sheets.

The Food and Beverage Hospitality Industry in India- An Emergent Segment

This book, The Food and Beverage Hospitality Industry in India: An Emergent Segment, presents the story of growth and change of what is still a largely unorganized food and beverage service industry in India. With the authors' experience in both industry and academia, the volume provides a holistic perspective of the current performance and identifies the topical issues and the challenges faced by the Indian food and beverage industry. The authors offer an insightful discussion on where the industry is headed and how it can move from top-line driven growth to a bottom-line supported one.

ALUMNI SPEAK

Vedatya has lots to offer to its students in terms of industry interaction, studies, events, participation in internal and external competition, conferences, workshops etc. All this and more forms part of a student development program which is holistic in nature. I was prepared and positioned to meet corporate expectations through various workshops and training sessions. The one year internship gave me the much needed training I needed to succeed in my career. Thanks to Vedatya and all the faculty members who were all there for me throughout the program.

Dionne Macker

SHTM 2013 Graduate

Asst. Sales Manager, Crowne Plaza, Rohini, Delhi

Being a part of Vedatya family, I have set up myself as a winning professional in the recent times by executing my skills acquired from my academic qualifications and practical experiences in the ever active Vedatya. I have raised myself as a professional in the past recent years not only by learning cooking skills, but also gaining an highly professional management skills for an organization with the support of highly skilled Vedatya faculty.

Akshit Dhingra

SHTM 2012 Graduate

Chef at Angelina Paris, Dubai

I am an Alumni of the 2011 SHTM batch and already striving to become one of the youngest General Manager at IHG. A lot of it has to do with Vedatya and the various faculty members who guided me in the most crucial years. The curriculum at the institute which is research based is clearly the USP for me. I find the curriculum very helpful that encourages logical thinking & creates a strategic bent of mind which is quintessential for a student aspiring to be a leader in the professional world. Add to it, practical experience in the 1st year, Internship in the 2nd year, management modules and the thoughtful industry interface in the last 2 years, and you have a winner.

Abhishek Verma

SHTM 2011 Graduate
