Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management (Hons.)

3 Year Program (Including Internship)
Degree Awarded by Gurugram University,
Gurugram, Haryana

About the Program

The program's main aim is to prepare learners for leadership and management roles in the service sector, fostering their ability to innovate and transform future organizations. It offers a comprehensive curriculum that distinguishes between leadership and management in the context of hospitality, ensuring academic rigor while equipping learners for promising careers in the field. Throughout the course, students learn managerial skills, laying a strong foundation for their hospitality careers. Additionally, the program balances this focus with the imparting of crucial operational skills, important in the industry.

Internships complement theoretical knowledge, providing practical experience and helping students identify their areas of interest in the hospitality and tourism sector.

We have a record of placing students both in India and abroad in hospitality chains like IHG, Marriott, Oberoi Group, Roseate, Hyatt, ITC, Taj Group etc. Also 26% of our hospitality graduates are placed in management trainee positions (the fast track to becoming a general manager) against an industry average of 2%.

The NEP (National Education Policy 2023) compliant program structure also offers a research-focused year 4 for those interested in building research competencies and related career pathways.

ALUMNI SPEAK

“The journey was never short of ups and downs and felt as a roller coaster every day. As we say, with great role and power comes great responsibilities and being an Inspire I had this quote with me all the time and it kept me going. It feels astounding that I have gained so much in these 18 months that I'm ready to take up the role as a Duty Manager myself. Above all, I very thankful to all my faculty and my professors at Vedatya Institute, Gurugram. I have reached this milestone with all the support and consistent belief of my mentors who've always got my back and taught me everything which is required to excel and reach the pinnacle of this industry. I am super proud to be student of such an esteemed Institute and vibrant and diverse team of mentors and faculty at Vedatya.

Eshaan Goel | Batch: PHML 2021

Duty Manager at IBIS Aerocity, New Delhi

“I started my journey with Vedatya Institute (formally known as IIMT) in 2011 in Bsc (Hons) in Hotel and Restaurant management. During my journey, the faculty helped me develop some core skills and competencies like leadership, personal development, persona building etc. With their guidance and nurture, I flourished in this sector through various opportunities they offered like internships at the best hotels like The Imperial, Delhi and Danat Resorts Al Ain in UAE. Further, I bagged a BBC interview with Mr. Juan Smith (handling AMEA region for IHG in 2013). Finally, this guidance built my confidence and led me to become an IGRAD with IHG. Currently, I am at a manager position at Coombs Early Learning in Australia. I would like to acknowledge and thank my faculty for guiding me every step of the way and allowing me to see my true value. I owe my confidence, my skills (especially leadership skills) and my strong career foundation to them.
